JUDGES CHOSEN FOR THE BAKING CONTEST

The judges for the broad baking contest to be held in Phoenix on Saturday have been selected, but their names will not be announced until the prizes are awarded. The judges are all well known culinary experts, well fitted by study and experience for their difficult task.

The Valley Flour Mills, which is giving $75 in cash prizes for this contest, reports that there is widespread interest and that a great number of entries will be made. The contest is to be held at the old office of Greene & Griffin, on North Central avenue, and the public is invited to call in the afternoon and see the display of bread.

With the permission of the contestants the bread entered will be given to the Associated Charities and to the Salvation Army. Contestants who desire to keep their bread or who may have some special place for it will of course be permitted to keep it. The prize winning loaves will be photographed and the recipe of the prize winners will be published.

THIS WAREHOUSE IS MODEL OF ITS KIND

The new warehouse recently erected by the Chambers Transfer company near the S. P. railroad tracks, between First and Second streets, is being found by patrons one of the most complete of its kind in the southwest.

The building is made of reinforced concrete, with basement under the entire building. An electric elevator and a traveling crane both go to aid in the speedy and careful handling of merchandise.

The following firms are at present using the new building: The Stetson-Barrett company, of Los Angeles, H. C. Hall, representative, Dixon Fagerberg, of Prescott, E. E. Anderson, representative, National Biscuit company, represented by C. E. Toft, and the Schalk Chemical company.

MAKE FORM FOR STATE'S LOANS

Attorney General Completes Form of Document Under Which Arizona is to Lend Money on Agricultural Lands

The office of the attorney general has completed forms of the documents to be used in the applications for and making state loans under the provisions of the land code and the proofs of them have been received. It is possible that some changes will be made in the forms, but it will not be long until the state will be ready to loan money on farm lands.

A great many applications have already been received and in order that the benefits of the law may be as widely distributed as possible no loan will exceed $5,000. The security will be property worth three times the amount of the loan, and it shall be a first mortgage on the property. The period of the loan may not be less than five years nor more than fifteen years, and the rate of interest shall be six per cent, payable annually. In case of a fifteen-year loan the payment of the principal shall be begun at the end of five years, and the annual installments of principal and interest shall be such that when the debt of ten equal annual payments has been made the debt will be discharged. In the case of a ten-year loan, after the end of five years the principal shall begin to be paid off in five annual installments.

The state has about $150,000 now to loan and it is expected that this fund will be rapidly increased from the sales of state lands.

SCOTCH CAPITALIST BUYS VALLEY LAND

One of the most important real estate transactions consummated in the Salt River Valley for some time was completed yesterday when M. H. Sheldon, acting for E. S. McRoberts, sold to William Gibson, a retired capitalist of Dundee, Scotland, the 65 acre tract, known as the Padgett ranch, located three and one-half miles east of Central avenue on the McDowell Road. The price was $10,000. Comparing this figure with that of $250 per acre at which property in that district is now held, the fact stands out that Mr. Gibson secured a rare bargain.

This is the second transfer of this property within six weeks. It was about the last of February that Mr. McRoberts acquired the property at the price of $4,000. There were reasons requiring the early sale of the property at that time and his purchase at that figure created no end of talk among the real estate men. The figure at which Mr. Gibson secured it is said to represent less than its actual value.

The purchasing of this property by Mr. Gibson is but another step in the movement inaugurated by F. S. McDowell, also of Dundee, who several months ago acquired some Phoenix property and who also owns several small tracts in this vicinity. Stephen, who represents English capital in the control of the Clearwater mine at Jerome, visited Phoenix less than a year ago and was favorably impressed at that time. He made purchases and announced then that he would bring other money to Phoenix here. He has kept that promise.

It is the plan of Mr. Gibson, who leaves today for Scotland, to return in a short time and erect a handsome residence on the property. In the meantime the general improvement of the property will be left in the hands of a competent agent. He expects to put most of it in alfalfa and fruit trees. It is reported to be a millionaire and has extensive holdings in South America.

REJOICINGS STORED UP FOR ROTARIANS

The program for the entertainment of the International Association of Rotary Clubs at Cincinnati, July 17-18-19-20, has just been completed by the Cincinnati Entertainment Executive Committee. The Rotary club of Phoenix will send several delegates, and many visitors besides are planning to attend.

The convention entertainment opens with a reception Sunday evening, July 16, in the ball room at the Hotel Gibson, where old acquaintances will be renewed and new friendships made.

On Monday afternoon, at one o'clock, the ladies will be taken on a trip to the Cincinnati Zoological Gardens. The men will attend model luncheons down town, showing how Rotary luncheons should be conducted. Some will go to Redland Field to see the Cincinnati Reds play Philadelphia. Others will enter the Golf tournament at the Hamilton County Golf Club, where golfers from all over the country will be entered in competition for a prize cup.

In the evening a parade headed by the delegations contesting for the 1917 convention will be held. Music Hall, seating 3,600 people, will be the scene of a great musical festival Tuesday evening for the benefit of Rotarians. Leading this program are Frances Ingram, contralto, late of the Chicago Grand Opera company, and Joseph Schenke, Cincinnati tenor.

The big entertainment of the convention is reserved for Wednesday, when the Rotarians will leave Cincinnati at 10:30 a. m. for Coney Island Summer Amusement Park. Here an old-fashioned Kentucky burgeois and barbecue will be served. Athletic events, swimming contests, a burlesque Kentucky Derby, a ball game

HOW PRINTERS CARE FOR THEIR SICK

Among the labor organizations of the world the International Typographical Union has a reputation for strength and conservation, for foresight and co-operation that is possessed by few. Among the very first of the bands of craftsmen in the country to appreciate the benefits of organization it has grown until it is numerically one of the largest even as it is one of the strongest. It is doubtful also if there is a single organization throughout the entire country that is more democratic in its control or more considerate of the members of the organization. Yet at this it rules with an iron hand and any infraction of the laws of the organization is immediately and severely punished. On this account as much as any other the printing trades have advanced in the last decade or two in point of general public appreciation of the personalities of the printers as have few trades.

In line with its policy of helpful co-operation the International Typographical Union early saw the need of assisting the union printer who was because of illness or disease incapacitated from further labor. To meet this great need a printer's home was built at Colorado Springs in 1891, which is still the model home of its kind throughout the entire country. Here are sent all the expense of the union printers suffering from tuberculosis—and there are many of them by the most skillful doctors and nurses until recovery.

The general public knows but little about this splendid work of the International Typographical Union, so in order to typify what it knows the Edison company some time ago manufactured a reel of motion pictures giving views of this splendid sanatorium. This reel of pictures has been received in Phoenix and will be run at the several motion picture theaters during the present week together with other matter setting forth the objects and methods of the printers' home. It was shown at the Lamara yesterday and will be on the Coliseum screen today.

In this connection it is also interesting to note that the local members of the union plan the annual printer's dance on Monday evening next at Patrick's Hall, the proceeds of which go to the fund maintained by the local union for the care of the local sick printers. The printer's home, however, is maintained by direct assessment upon the members of the union throughout the world.

LAUFFER BINDS WIFE TO THE SINGLE LIFE

If the wife of Jacob B. Lauffer remarries the property left her by her husband will pass on to their children according to Lauffer's will which was filed in the superior court yesterday.

Lauffer who was well known on the south side passed away in Mesa recently. He had quite a little property one half of which he left his wife and the other half to be held in trust by her for their children, Sophia Elizabeth, Thomas Roland and Jacob B. Lauffer. He requested that the children be properly supported and educated and that the sum left his wife be given them should she marry again.

FINANCES and MARKETS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire] NEW YORK, April 18 (Wall Street)—Selling of special stocks more particularly the shares comprising the war group was resumed in moderate but steady fashion today, some of those issues recording lowest quotations for the current decline. The doubtful status of the European and Mexican problems contributed measurably to this trend, but other events of the past few days accelerated the movement.

Chief among these were the other intimations conveyed by representative of large purchasing interests to the effect that England and France now seem able to meet their requirements for arms and ammunition without outside assistance. Other causes which made the immediate future of the war shares somewhat uncertain also have been advanced.

That this condition does not apply with much if any force to copper and kindred products which is evidenced by the comparative firmness of the shares of such companies. Most of the metal stocks held their ground with a quotation of 31 cents per pound for "spot" copper. United States Steel ruled a mere fraction over yesterday's minimum, and Bethlehem Steel, which was far from active, scored a net loss of 1 1/2. Steel and some of the other leaders were at lowest levels just at the close, when announcement was made of another ten per cent advance in wages by the steel corporation because of the "continuance of prosperous conditions."

There was a fair inquiry for shares of the coal roads. Total sales of stocks amounted to $30,000 shares. Heavy dealings in Anglo-French 5's at their recent minimum made for irregularity in other bonds. Total sales of bonds par value were $3,500, 000.

United States coupon 4's declined 1/2, and Panama registered 2's 1/2 per cent on call.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 18.—Reports that Germany was likely to meet the wishes of the United States in the Sussex case helped today to rally the price of wheat, and also did rains in the spring wheat country. Quotations closed from 1/2 to 3/4 cents net higher, with May at $1.14 1/2, cent, and July at $1.14 1/2. Corn gained 1/4 cent to 1/2 cents up, and oats a shade of 1/4 cent.

In provisions the outcome varied from 2 1/2 cents decline to a rise of 1 1/2.

At first the wheat market showed much depression, largely as a result of uneasiness regarding the submarine issue with Germany.

Word that the American note to Germany would go forward tonight or tomorrow failed to give more than a temporary check to optimism of wheat buyers in the late dealings.

Seaboard demand lifted corn. Oats rose with corn.

Provisions, although weak early, were afterward inclined to bulge. The market seemed to be governed by the course of prices on grain and hogs.

LONDON WOOL

LONDON, April 18.—The offerings at the wool auction sales today amounted to 7,900 bales. The demand was strong and prices were firm. Merinos advanced from five to ten per cent. Russian buyers paid 2 1/2d for the best grades of secured.
